The Sub-Treasury Scheme Clearly Stated by the Judge and Then Dissected With Inimitable Humor.

A Large Audience Gives Close Attention to the Speakers—The Afternoon Meeting Abandoned—Many County Tickets and Political Gatherings in the State.

Special Dispatch to the Daily Eagle.

HUTCHINSON, Kan., Sept. 20.—Owing to some misunderstanding the speakers announced to address the people of this vicinity today failed to arrive till late this evening and as a consequence the afternoon meeting was abandoned. Tonight, however, quite a large crowd gathered at the opera house to hear Hon. J. R. Burton, of Abilene, and Judge H. C. Sluss, of Wichita.

Both speakers devoted themselves chiefly to the platform of the Farmers' Alliance, as adopted at St. Louis, showing up its absurdities and fallacies. Mr. Burton dwelt upon those portions referring to the government ownership of the railways of the country.

Judge Sluss in a masterly speech of considerable length exposed the impracticability of the sub-treasury scheme and the gross injustice and unfairness involved in its inception. He said it was an attempt to apply the principle of the doctrine of patronage to the United States. It was the most unjust piece of demagoguery ever perpetrated on the farmer, a scheme which would in the beginning of its practical application bankrupt the treasury; a piece of legislation which would rouse the prejudice and hostility of all other poor hard-working and equally deserving laborers. Any farmer who has any notion of the number of farmers who would ask for money under this plan can make a rough calculation as to the national deficiency within sixty days after the law went into effect.

After treating the subject seriously, so far as he could be serious about a matter so ludicrous, he entertained his hearers by a most humorous forecast of how the plan would work if it could be inaugurated. Some of his illustrations were certainly equal to the best efforts of Bill Xy.

NO RETALIATION. GERMANY NOT LEAGUED AGAINST AMERICA.

The Ministry Not in Favor of Joining the Proposed Alliance.

Abundant Commercial Reprisals Urged by the Austrian Press—France Asked to Join.

Reciprocity More to Chancellor Caprivi's Taste—Emperors William and Francis Joseph Watch the Army Maneuvers at Eichholz—Enthusiastic Greetings—Foreign Flashes.

(Copyrighted 1890 by the New York Associated Press.)

BERLIN, Sept. 20.—Semi-official information has been obtained to the effect that Austria has taken the initiative in proposing concerted European action against the McKinley tariff bill.

The reports in the Paris newspapers that France had been invited to join the dreadnought do not mean the political league, but a league whose object will be to take common commercial reprisals against America. The reports, however, were entirely premature. Chancellor von Caprivi, evidently feeling himself incapable of deciding the complicated question involved in a tariff war, declined to commit Germany to any action before consulting his colleagues. It is probable that Count Kalnoky and M. Ribot, the French minister of foreign affairs, exchanged views on the matter. The officials of the foreign office here deny that there have been any communications with the French government, and various other methods of communication have been allowed to drop. Herr Miquel is opposed to any measure tending to increase the cost of production of goods.

The taxation reform which he is preparing draw upon the resources of the muddled classes and do not touch the food of the people. The spirit of his policy is in the direction of reciprocity, not of retaliation. If Chancellor von Caprivi is guided by his colleagues, Germany's assent to join Austria against a protective tariff is impossible. The Vienna press, which is more exercised over the tariff question than the German papers, discusses the advisability of retaliating by placing a general European ban upon American products, by refusing to protect American patents and various other methods of reprisals for countries having important commercial relations with the United States.

THE EMPERORS MEET.

A grand parade of the troops engaged in the army maneuvers was held this morning near Eichholz in the presence of Emperors William and Francis Joseph, the king of Saxony, Chancellor von Caprivi, Kaiser of Austria, and other high officials of the empire. The emperor and his suite were in the parade and the king of Saxony and the emperor's ministers were in the grandstand. The emperor and his suite were in the parade and the king of Saxony and the emperor's ministers were in the grandstand.

Francis Joseph and the king of Saxony for attending the maneuvers and said he hoped they had seen had convinced them of the value of the emperor's leadership as it was under that of Emperor William I, thus furnishing a guarantee of the solidity and strength of the brotherhood of the empire. He then called for cheers for the Austrian emperor, which were enthusiastically given by the officers.

Emperor Francis Joseph, in his response to Emperor William's speech, said he was proud of having an ally in command of such troops. The whole operations had given him special gratification.
